and social development*

FAGUS AMBASSADORS

JOB DESCRIPTION

ABOUT US

Fagus is a unique, educational resource which provides a system for schools to monitor, review and support children's emotional and social development.

Fagus was born out of a need that Beech Lodge School in Berkshire had to understand, support and monitor their pupils' social and emotional developmental progress. Many of the pupils' at Beech Lodge have attachment and developmental trauma-related difficulties and have been adopted from care.

It is over 1 year since we launched, and we now have schools, educational establishments, adoption support agencies, local authorities and educational psychologists using Fagus. Fagus comprises a series of 13 developmental guides and an online checklist tool – for more information about the product please visit www.fagus.org.uk.

As we continue to expand, we're looking for passionate and enthusiastic individuals to help us spread the word and join our team of Ambassadors

THE ROLE

This is a new role and an exciting opportunity to join an expanding team of like-minded people who are passionate about children and education.

Working from home or your own office location, a Fagus Ambassador will represent Fagus in their designated region and encourage sales into schools, Local Authorities, Virtual Schools and other education or training establishments for whom Fagus might be appropriate.

You will inform and connect to our target audience by demonstrating the values and benefits of Fagus in your region and you will be proactive in representing the Fagus brand.

The role may involve researching, identifying, nurturing and closing new customer opportunities and sourcing new contacts through your own methods and networks.

We are interested in hearing from you if you have proven experience working in education, educational psychology, child development, adoption, Local Authority or children charities. You will be passionate about improving children's mental health and learning outcomes for children and young people.

Full product training, flexibility and a good commission-based remuneration package is offered.

You will need to have a passion for Fagus' values and cause and be confident, self-motivated and have a positive outlook.

HOW TO APPLY

To apply please email a covering letter and copy of your CV to enquiries@fagus.org.uk.
